Ed:

I think this letter looks good. The only comment I would have, though minor, is that I don't recall Valero referring to the three-way distribution system as a 'chicken foot'. I think that came only from Ergon.

Hi David,

I'm attaching a draft letter addressed to Parker Wilson, in-house counsel for Valero, that provides a brief summary memorializing the information they provided at our March 8, 2017, meeting. I'm also copying Mark, Scott and Ellen for any additional insight they may have. Please let me know what you think.

In the meantime, I'll begin to work on a similar draft letter to Ergon.

Thanks,

Ed Q.
